BOSTON VS. CHICAGO.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

BOSTON, June 2.--The White Stockings lost the game this afternoon; and, after a hard, uphill contest, scored, three runs to fourteen by the Boston Club, champions of the professional championships. The game was played on the Boston ground, and on the day previous, on the same ground, and on the same grounds, with sports, too.

Mr. Sweetser, of the Arlington Club, of Washington, was chosen umpire. He was quite satisfactory generally impartial.

The Whites won the toss and took bat, and scored two runs in the

FIRST INNING.

A fine hit was made by Spencer, sending home Foley and Hines. The batter out were King, Wood, and Treacy; all of whom were put out by Wood and Gould, 3 to 1.

The Reds then went in and scored one run, which was well earned, Barnes coming with a two-base hit, and being sent home by a safe hit by Sensenderfer. Treacy captured a fly from McVey, Duffy reached first on Gould's muffed throw, and Barnes scored. Sensenderfer and Barnes then, also Wood put Harry Wright at second, Gould often run all over the field. Pinkham and Wood dropped out. Duffy opened the

by a smashing hit, on which he got three bases, Hines Hill and Leonard following suit. Spencer, King and Wood put out by Harry Wright, Treacy and Gould by Duffy. Hines scored on a fly by Wright, and Spencer on a hit by Leonard. Score 3 to 1.

The Reds then went in and did some heavy batting, but two double plays by Spencer, assisted by the third strike, by Mr. McVey, and a muff by Leonard, left them with but one run, counting the latter to Sensenderfer, who had reached first on called balls. Barnes got out last time, however, and Spencer and Hines followed suit. Score 4 to 1. The Whites went in for their third inning, but Wright was thrown out at first by Gould; Kennedy fly was captured by Barnes, and, lastly, Pinkham was put out by McVey. Treacy made a splendid run for a spanker by Harry Wright, while trying to score on a hit by Leonard to centre.

In the absence of the Chairman, Rev. John Woodbury, Rev. J. S. Hibbard was called upon to preside.

The following ministers were present: Revs. J. P. Hunter, J. Parker, C. Fowler, E. Cowles, J. H. Rice, and Messrs. Bonfoey, Hitchcock, Ward, Howard, C. H. Noble, C. Sumner, F. E. Wright, Bowen, Gale, Gage, G. D. Boardman, and H. Foster.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Rev. J. Parker read a letter from Rev. Dr. Kirk, of Boston, in which he stated that he would be unable to be present at the meeting, but would send a letter to be read
